It's short (2 hours-ish) and it costs one dollar (or less)! Yeah, there are better and more acclaimed puzzle games like Portal, Quern, Talos Principle, etc. No one will ever be impressed to hear you beat SolarGun. But Mechanical Boss honestly wouldn't care. My impression is that they set out to make a barebones first person puzzle game, focusing more on solid puzzles than pretty assets or a fleshed out story. And as far as I'm concerned they succeeded.. Great puzzle game for just 1$. Talos principle/Portal idea but shorter. It will take you about one hour to finish it, so if you have spare time , get the game.. a great first person puzzle game like portal with you and a sun gun that can open doors create things and swiches with a good level design and it's only $0.99. short but nice 1st person puzzler.

very much a simple clone of "the turing test" but with some own features.

box handling worx like in "talos principle".

getting extra bonus levels at end are the real reward for playing!. The devs wanted to make fake portal but they didnt manage to do it.. 05V10

A little and correct first person puzzle game.

. Pretty Cool.. You should buy it. For this price it's almost a steal.. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ygr5AHufBN4>. Graphics are clean [map].

Gameplay is good.

Everything other's fine.. :D

Thumbs up.

For a $1 game this game really delivers.

if you enjoyed Portal you are sure to enjoy this one, It is very similar to that game.
What we have here is a first person puzzle platformer game much like Portal as i have mentioned.

The gameplay is quite fun with the environments neatly done with a very appealing look. The puzzles themselves aren't too hard or complicated especially if you have played other games similar to this. The game has very decent graphics, the visual aspect of the game is really good, we have that futuristic look or theme you might say.

The game doesn't really offer any form of story or dialogue, in this regard the game feels a bit incomplete, it is♥♥♥♥♥there is history but they didn't bother to tell it, but in no way does this make it a bad game, for the price of this game and the enjoyment you will get this is a sure thing.

. Damn! This is portal-like puzzle game for only a freaking €! FFS get this game ASAP, best discovery of the year by far.. Imagine a kind of really bad and simple puzzle Portal game where you run through company rooms like in The Stanley Parable for no reason. So not fun.. I really like this game. Definitely inspired by Portal and that is no con. It's actually really nice simplified recreation of such a great game. If this game gets more attention, it might have a great potential to break thru.. This game only costs 1$??? This is freaking awesome! Best inversion ever!!!. Solar Gun is an FPS puzzle game with some shooting mechanics.

You know what this means... it takes a lot of inspiration from Portal and various other indie puzzle games, both in world design, art style and puzzle design. There are some visuals from 2001: A Space Odyssey for some reason. Using monolith imagery should make some kind of sense, otherwise it's just a reference that doesn't mean anything.

The puzzles are typical, not exactly mind blowing, but they keep you occupied for a few minutes/hours. The environments aren't quite illogical, but the attempt at worldbuilding is commendable.. Its pretty cool, you should play it.. Great portal-like puzzle game! For one dollar it's really worth a shot.

(Cool movie references btw). For this price? Yes! Take gamepad, relax and enjoy a couple of hours.. And feel smart :p
